8Marks

1. Read the passage and answer the questions given below:

Jane Goodall was a woman who spent her entire life studying chimpanzees. She was born on 3rd April 1934 in London, England. Her father was a businessman and her mother was a writer.

When she was a child, Jane's father gifted her life-like chimpanzee stuffed toy. She named it 'Jubilee'. She developed a love for animals and chimpanzees because of that toy. In her free time, she used to observe birds and animals and read books about them. Jane began to dream of going to Africa. She wanted to study her favourite animal in the wild.

After finishing college, Jane started working small jobs. She wanted to save money to make her dream come true. Her dream did come true. She was invited by a childhood friend to visit their farm in Kenya.
