

BUDHA DAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

ANNUAL PEDAGOGICAL STRATEGIES (2023-2024)

SUBJECT: POLITICAL SCIENCE

CLASS – XI

BOOK – INDIAN CONSTITUTION AT WORK

TOPIC	LEARNING OUTCOME	INNOVATIVE/ART INTEGRATION/EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING/ INTER DISCIPLINARY
Constitution: Why and How?	Understand the need for a Constitution Understand the process of Constitution-making in India Analyze the Preamble to the Indian Constitution Critically evaluate how constitutions, govern the distribution of power in society Analyze the ways in which the provisions of the constitution have worked in real political life	Create an art project that visually represents the Preamble to the Indian Constitution Conduct a group project where students create a mock constitution for a fictional country (integrated with Painting, theatre)
Rights in the Indian constitution	Understand the meaning and significance of Fundamental Rights Analyze the scope and limitations of Fundamental Rights in India Understand the importance of the Right to Equality and the Right to freedom etc Justify the need for reasonable restrictions on the rights guaranteed	Create a visual representation of the Fundamental Rights in the Indian Constitution Conduct a group project where students analyze a specific Fundamental Right and its impact on society (integrated with Painting, IT)
Executive	Understand the role of the Executive in the Indian government Analyze the powers and functions of the President, Prime Minister, and Council of Ministers Understand the concept of checks and balances in the	Create a visual representation of the different branches of government in India Conduct a group project where students create a mock Cabinet and role-play the decision-making process (integrated with Theatre, painting)

	Indian Constitution Know the significance of the administrative machinery
Legislature	Understand the role of the Legislature in the Indian government Analyze the powers and functions of the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha Understand the concept of parliamentary procedures and debates Describe the law making process	Conduct a mock parliamentary debate on a current issue in India Create a visual representation of the different constituencies and parliamentary seats in India (integrated with Theatre, Computer)
Judiciary	Understand the role of the Judiciary in the Indian government Analyze the powers and functions of the Supreme Court and High Courts Understand the concept of judicial review and writs Examine the reasons for the conflicts between Judiciary and parliament	Create a visual representation of the different levels of the Indian court system Conduct a group project where students act out a mock court case and analyze the decision-making process (integrated with IT, theatre)
Federalism	Understanding the concept of federalism and its significance in a diverse country like India. Knowledge of the distribution of powers and functions between the central and state governments. Understanding the challenges faced by federalism in India. Analyzing the role of language, culture and regional aspirations in the functioning of federalism.	Conduct a model United Nations-style simulation where students take on the roles of different states and negotiate with the central government to resolve issues related to federalism. Create a collage or artwork depicting the diversity of India and how federalism helps in accommodating these differences. Organize a group discussion or debate on the topic of "Unity in Diversity: The role of federalism in India" (integrated with theatre, painting)
Constitution as a Living Document	Understand the concept of the Constitution as a living document and its importance in a dynamic society Analyze the significance of judicial interpretation in the evolution of the Constitution	Creative writing: Have students write a short essay or poem that reflects on the idea of the Constitution as a living document. Encourage them to use metaphors and imagery to express their

	Examine the challenges and controversies surrounding the interpretation of the Constitution	understanding of the Constitution and its significance in contemporary India. Debate: Divide students into groups and assign them different controversial constitutional issues, such as the right to privacy, the reservation system, or the death penalty. User Chapter philosophy of the Indian Constitution
The Philosophy of the Indian Constitution	Understand the philosophical underpinnings of the Indian Constitution Analyze the influence of different schools of thought, such as liberalism, socialism, and Gandhianism, on the drafting of the Constitution Examine the significance of the Preamble and the Directive Principles of State Policy in the Constitution Evaluate the relevance and challenges of the constitutional values in contemporary India	Role-play: Divide students into groups and assign them different roles, such as liberal, socialist, Gandhian, or feminist thinkers. Collage: Have students create a collage that represents the different constitutional values
BOOK POLITICAL THEORY
Political theory: An introduction	Understand the meaning and scope of political theory Analyze the different	Create a visual representation of different political theories and their main concepts

	approaches and methods used in political theory Understand the relationship between political theory and political practice Appreciate the contribution of political thinkers like Rosseau	Conduct a group project where students analyze a political theory and apply it to a current political issue Reading the work of great thinkers Quiz (integrated with English, IT Painting)
Freedom	Understand the concept of freedom and its different interpretations Analyze the relationship between individual freedom and state intervention Understand the importance of freedom in Society Explain the ideas introduced by JS Mill in harm principle	Create an art project that visually represents the different interpretations of freedom Conduct a group project where students analyze a specific freedom-related issue in society (integrated with Painting, IT)
Equality	Understand the concept of equality and its different interpretations Analyze the relationship between social inequality and political power Understand the importance of equality in a democratic Recognise means and methods to promote equality	Equality collage: Divide the students into groups and give each group a topic related to equality (e.g. gender equality, racial equality, economic equality, etc.). Have them create a collage s. Equality timeline: Have the students create a timeline of the history of equality in India, including significant events, movements, and leaders. Equality skits: Divide the students into groups and have them create short skits that illustrate different aspects of equality, such as equal opportunities, equal treatment, and equal outcomes. (integrated with theartre, painting)
Social Justice	Understand the concept of social justice and its historical development in India Analyze the challenges to social justice in India	Art project: Have students create a series of posters that highlight various aspects of social justice, such as gender equality, caste-based discrimination, and access to

	Recognize the importance of affirmative action policies for historically marginalized groups State John Rawls theory of veil of ignorance	education. They can use different art forms, such as painting, collage, and mixed media, to express their ideas and perspectives. Role play: Divide students into groups and assign them different social justice issues, such as child labor, environmental degradation, or gender-based violence. (integrated with theatre, painting)
Rights	Understanding the concept of rights and its significance in democracy. Knowledge of different types of rights such as civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights. Understanding the relationship between rights and duties. Understanding the challenges in the implementation of rights and their protection in India. Describe the features of different kinds of rights	Conduct a role-play activity where students take on different characters to highlight the importance of different types of rights in society. Create posters or artwork depicting different rights and their significance in promoting a just and democratic society. Organize a debate competition on the topic of "Rights vs. Duties" (integrated with theatre, painting)
Secularism	Understanding the concept of secularism and its significance in a diverse society like India. Knowledge of the constitutional provisions related to secularism and the challenges in their implementation. Understanding the relationship between secularism and communalism. Analyzing the role of secularism in promoting harmony and unity in a diverse society.	Create a collage or artwork depicting the diversity of India and how secularism helps in accommodating these differences. Organize a debate or discussion on the topic of "Religious Freedom vs. Secular" (integrated with painting, public speaking)